

How to Switch from APA to CMS

The Center for Engaged Learning asks that all in-text citations and reference lists follow the Chicago Manual of Style Author-Date format. This table shows how to style the most common types of references. For more info and details, please visit https://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide/citation-guide-2.html

Note these intentional departures from the CMS 18th Edition guidance:

- The Center for Engaged Learning will continue to cite up to 3 authors in in-text citations and list all authors in reference list.
- We will continue to include page ranges when citing book chapters.
